He took me to his room over the Jumna Sweet Shop and told me I could sleep in the balcony. But the meal I cooked that night must have been terrible because Anil gave it to a stray dog and told me to be off. But I just hung around, smiling in my most appealing way, and he couldn't help laughing.

Later, he patted me on the head and said never mind, he'd teach me to cook. He also taught me to write my name and said he would soon teach me to write whole sentences and to add numbers. I was grateful. I knew that once I could write like an educated man there would be no limit to what I could achieve.

It was quite pleasant working for Anil. I made the tea in the morning and then would take my time buying the day's supplies, usually making a profit of about a rupee a day. I think he knew I made a little money this way but he did not seem to mind.

Anil made money by fits and starts. He would borrow one week, lend the next. He kept worrying about his next cheque, but as soon as it arrived he would go out and celebrate. It seems he wrote for magazines — a queer way to make a living!

One evening he came home with a small bundle of notes, saying he had just sold a book to a publisher. At night, I saw him tuck the money under the mattress.

I had been working for Anil for almost a month and, apart from cheating on the shopping, had not done anything in my line of work. I had every opportunity for doing so. Anil had given me a key to the door, and I could come and go as I pleased. He was the most trusting person I had ever met.

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages. At first, the infant,
Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms.
Then the whining schoolboy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwillingly to school. And then the lover,
Sighing like furnace, with a woeful ballad
Made to his mistress' eyebrow. Then a soldier,
Full of strange oaths and bearded like the pard,
Jealous in honour, sudden and quick in quarrel,
Seeking the bubble reputation
Even in the cannon's mouth. And then the justice,
In fair round belly with good capon lined,
With eyes severe and beard of formal cut,
Full of wise saws and modern instances;
And so he plays his part.

i) सभा, संमेलने गाजवणारे -

कविवर्य नारायण सुर्वे खूप सभा, संमेलने गाजवत. पुढे ते साहित्य संमेलनाचे अध्यक्षही झाले. परिणामतः त्यांच्या कार्यक्रमांना अहोरात्र भरतीच असे. प्रत्येक कार्यक्रमात सन्मानाची शाल व श्रीफळ त्यांना मिळत राही. एकदा ते मला म्हणाले, "या शाली घेऊन घेऊन मी आता 'शालीन' बनू लागलो आहे."

त्यांच्या बोलण्यातील उपरोधिक खोच माझ्याच नव्हे तर कोणाच्याही सहजपणे लक्षात येणारी होती. शाल व शालीनता यांचा संबंध काय? खरे तर, खरीखुरी शालीनता शालीविनाच शोभते! सुर्वे मुळातच शालीन. शालींच्या वर्षावाखाली त्यांची शालीनता कधी हरवली नाही, कधी क्षीणही झाली नाही.

मी कविवर्यांना म्हटले, "शालीमुळे शालीनता येत असेल तर मी कर्जबाजारी होईन, भिकेला लागेन; पण शेकडो शाली खरेदी करून सर्वांना एकेक शाल लगेचच नेऊन देईन." यावर तो शालीन कवी मनापासून हसला.

शालीमुळे शालीनता येते की जाते? या प्रश्नाचे माझे उत्तर 'जाते' असेच आहे. सन्मान करण्याच्या रूपाने आपण खरे तर एक शालीन जग गमावून बसण्याचा धोकाच मोठा आहे.

मी २००४ साली मराठी साहित्य संमेलनाचा बिनविरोध अध्यक्ष झालो. तत्कालीन एक-दोन वर्षांत माझ्यावर शालींचा वर्षाव झाला. एवढ्या शाली जमत गेल्या, की माझ्या आठ बाय सहाच्या खोलीत त्यांना ठेवणेच शक्य नव्हते. मग मी सगळ्या शालींचे गोठोडे बांधून ते निकटवर्ती मित्राकडे ठेवले व त्या शाली वापरण्याचे वगैरे त्याला सर्वाधिकार दिले. बिचारा अतिप्रामाणिक! त्याच्याही छोट्या खोलीत त्याने ते सांभाळले.
